

Muhammad Yunus

Laureate Economist, Humanitarian Entrepreneur

Impelled by a venerable and vital blend of commercial interest and moral community, you have spent forty years imagining for others a path out of life-sapping poverty.

Your work through several Grameen enterprises has led countless families to productive lives.

Your creative insights into the promise of social business have inspired untold thousands around the world who seek to emulate your mission.

By making a small personal loan four decades ago, you began a movement.

Grateful that you continue to apply knowledge in service to humanity, we bestow on you the degree of Doctor of Letters, honoris causa.
